Minutes from the meeting held on 4 November 2009 were accepted.

Moved: David Cadden Seconded: Pania Gregson

3 Treasurer's Report

The Treasurer's Report was not available on the evening. It will be reviewed and moved and seconded at the Executive Meeting on 7 December.

4 Light Up Camden

David Anderson was not available to report on the event as he was interstate however Miriam reported that it was a success. Miriam thanked all of the people involved in putting together the event including the organising committee, the sponsors and the volunteers.

David Anderson is stepping down from his role as coordinator for next year and Kerry Shephard has accepted the position. Miriam thanked Kerry.

5 President's Report

"As 2009 draws to close and we reflect on what has been a turbulent year for business, it has been a successful year for our Chamber with our membership now over 60 and growing.

When times are tough it becomes even more important to support each other in business. The executive team hopes that you have found our monthly Chamber meetings supportive, up beat, informative and motivational with plenty of networking opportunities."

Miriam requested that the members feel free to provide feedback to Chamber and asked the Executive Committee to stand so that members could see who they can speak to.

Miriam thanked everyone for their support and attendance over the past year and wished everyone a safe and happy Christmas.

6 Next Meeting

The next meeting will be on 3 February 2010 at venue to be advised.
