- Chamber Website – we are currently awaiting a second quote and will be making a decision within the next few days;
- Light Up Festival – David Anderson advised Camden Council have this year donated $8,500 towards the Festival, an increase from last year's $5,500. This year will see three stages to accommodate additional entertainment. Also, C91.3 have agreed to an advertising package valued at $12,000 for a reduced cost of $3,500;
- Next month's AGM – announcement repeated below. Note that any member wishing to nominate or be nominated must be a financial member for 2008/2009. Membership applications will be added to these minutes. The President's maximum 2 yr term has been completed therefore, President Kerry Shephard, will be stepping down;
- Next month's speaker – Leanne Buttrose of Bendigo Bank will be in attendance to speak more about the possibility of opening a branch in Camden. Q&A session will follow;

Guest Speaker

Mr Imam Ali from Macro conducted a very pertinent presentation on business and income for now and the future. A link is available to his presentation via Macro website and is attached. Take the time to check it out – you may find it interesting that much of the shopping dollar & eventual home purchasers come from Campbelltown to Camden.
